

Spotting

USING THE LOW ROPES

When using the Low Ropes, you should do so in groups of three with one person navigating each element whilst the other two are spotting

USING THE LOW ROPES

The spotters stand next to the climber, with arms raised or at the ready, if the climber falls, the spotter does not catch the climber, but redirects the climber's fall so that they land safely.